San Francisco, CA— On October 3, 2017 the Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure (“CCII”) unanimously approved the appointment of Nadia Sesay to the position of Executive Director.

“I think I speak for my fellow commissioners when I say that OCII could not be in better hands,” said Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure Chair Marily Mondejar.

“Over the last seven months as OCII’s Interim Executive Director Nadia has demonstrated exemplary leadership. I have no doubt that our initiatives will be substantial in meeting the Mayor’s goals for the City, specifically 30,000 new housing units of which 10,000 are affordable by 2020.”

OCII, with Executive Director Sesay at the helm will ensure economic vitality, affordable housing and public open space in Transbay, Mission Bay, Hunters Point Shipyard, and Candlestick Point.”

Director Sesay has served as Interim Executive Director of the Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure (“OCII”) since January 2017 and comes to OCII from San Francisco’s Office of the Controller where she served as Director of Public Finance for the last twelve years.

OCII is responsible for the development of the Transbay, Mission Bay and Hunters Point Shipyard neighborhoods, which collectively provide for over 22,000 new housing units, including the development of approximately 7,000 affordable units and 12 million square feet of new commercial space. OCII also oversees the asset management of former San Francisco Redevelopment Agency assets.

“Nadia has a long history of working selflessly on the behalf of the residents of this City,” said Mayor Edwin M. Ms. Sesay has worked with the Office of Public Finance for the last 19 years. As Director she administered and managed the City’s $3.5 billion debt portfolio, oversaw the issuance of all new debt secured by property taxes and general fund sources, initiated the City’s debt policies and procedures, and assisted in the management of various complex financial issues. Prior to joining the City, Ms. Sesay worked for Union Bank of California, N.A. in the Corporate Trust Department as Trust Administrator.

Ms. Sesay also sits on the San Francisco Community Investment Fund Board, and served as the Chair of the Oversight Board of the Successor Agency to the Redevelopment Agency of the City and County of San Francisco prior to her appointment as Interim Executive Director. In 2015, Ms. Sesay served on the State Treasurer’s Task Force on Bond Accountability, whose Final Report in December 2015 prompted the State of California to adopt several of its recommended reforms. Ms. Sesay was awarded San Francisco’s Public Managerial Excellence Award for exemplary leadership, fiscal ingenuity and vision in 2010.
