1. In its Fiscal Year 1991-92 budget, the Redevelopment Agency of the City and County of San Francisco ("Agency") allocated $2 million to establish the Chinatown Economic Development Program.
2. In 1992 and 1993, the Agency adopted the economic development plan ("Plan") proposed by the Mayor's Chinatown Economic Development Task Force, incorporated as Chinatown Economic Development Group ("CEDG") in 1993, allocated $554,000 for aesthetics, $500,000 for marketing, $590,000 for a business loan program, and $356,000 for long range planning.
3. Since 1995, at the request of the CEDG, the citizens advisory group for the Chinatown Economic Development Fund, the Agency has funded several non-profit organizations to undertake a program ("Program") of street cleaning and other business development services which enhance Chinatown as a tourist and shopping destination.
4. On September 1, 1999, the CEDG issued a Request for Proposals to select operators to continue the Chinatown street cleaning program for an additional year.
5. On October 1, 1999, the current service providers submitted proposals to CEDG to continue the Chinatown street cleaning program. On October 28, 1999, the CEDG's Aesthetics Committee and Board evaluated Chinatown Community Development Center ("CCDC") and Maintrain's past performance and the proposals submitted by these two service providers and recommended the Agency enter into a Contract for another year with them.
